AN EXCLUSIVE DESTINATION

VENICE LIDO

The Hotel Excelsior was built at the turn of the century, the realised desire of visionary entrepreneur Nicolo Spada and world-class architect Giovanni Sardi. It opened on July 21st 1908 to great acclaim, with a lavish oceanfront party for over 3,000 guests from around the globe. Its creators aimed to transform Venice Lido into a fashionable, glamorous destination for the discerning traveller both national and international, utilising its unique beach setting, ample space and breath-taking views to maximum effect. After 18 months of building work, their dream resort was complete: a grand, Belle Epoque style palazzo featuring elaborate Moorish design elements, with manicured gardens, an immaculate sandy beach and endless rows of private cabanas on one side and the emerald waters of the Venice Lagoon to the other. The hotel quickly became a Lido landmark, the must visit destination for the rich, famous and often royal.

Today, over a century since its glorious opening, this 5-star destination remains an idyllic retreat for those seeking hospitality, luxury and glamour rarely seen since the Golden Age. Its unique atmosphere, combined with its exceptional facilities, event spaces, beach, location and proximity to Venice, enchants thousands of visitors every season and leaves them with unforgettable memories.

The story continues ...

Settled between the Venetian Lagoon and the Adriatic Sea, Venice Lido is just 15 minute-boat ride from the city of Venice.

The Red Carpet auditorium was purpose-built in a theatrical style to ensure perfect acoustics, and can be set up to include the latest technology, projectors, screens and surround sound. Just a step across the hall is our Sala Stucchi, a magnificent Baroque ballroom featured in numerous hit films, as “Once Upon a Time in America”, ideal for pre or post-meeting meals; this light, airy room can be set up in a range of ways and is often used for presentations during the Venice Film Festival. For more intimate gatherings, we offer several smaller boardrooms and complimentary Wi Fi is available throughout the building.

During the warmer months, our beach front terrace can also be used for meetings; equipment and seating can be set up al fresco, or we can provide a canopy, tent, gazebo or other structure.

Your imagination is the limit. The Torcello and Burano meeting rooms are ideal for smaller meetings, with a capacity of 60 guests each, while the nearby Murano room can host up to 25 persons or be used as office space.
